POLISH FILM FESTIVAL EXETER KINOTEKA

27, 31 March
& 3 April 2011

Hydro-Riddle (Hydrozagadka) Dir. A. Kondratiuk 1970 / 70'
Sun 27 Mar, 6pm

Amidst the great heat wave rolling through Warsaw, water keeps mysteriously vanishing. But fear not, Detective As is on the trail!

The Christening (Chrzest) Dir. M. Wrona 2009 / 86'
Sun 27 Mar, 8pm

Michal invites his old friend, soldier Jacek, to be the godfather of his child. But is it possible to escape the criminal past and a mafia sentence?

Venice (Wenecja) Dir. J.J. Kolksi 2010 / 110'
Thu 31 Mar, 6.15pm

Summer of 1939. 11 year old Marek is about to visit Venice, but instead is sent to a small village. Somewhere between his dreams, Venice, and the war, he must prematurely transform from a boy into a man.

Mother Teresa of Cats (Matka Teresa od kotów) 2010 / 94'
Thu 31 Mar, 9pm

Real story: mother was killed by her sons. Yet the movie avoids falling into the trap of simple reconstruction of the tragedy, focusing instead on a wider issue of a family collapse in contemporary society.

A Wonderful Summer (Cudowne lato) Dir. R. Brylski 2010 / 83'
Sun 3 Apr, 2.30pm

A romantic black comedy. Kitka, who lost her mother as a child, is about to make her first life choices. Her grandfather, her dour stone-carver father Edgar and even her late mother (!) are determined to help.
